

Hand & Arm Worker Protection

According to OSHA, 71% of hand and arm injuries could have been prevented with PPE, specifically safety gloves.

103.7MM+

workers in the United States are protected by hand protection.

WORKPLACE INJURIES

454,890 hand injuries
(annually in the U.S.)

45% of these are cut, laceration, and/or puncture injuries

Sources: BLS, ISEA

70%

of workers don't wear hand protection.

30%

don't wear the right kind of glove for the task

ANSI/ISEA 105-2024 American National Standard for Hand Protection Selection Criteria is now available. Understand what's new and the impact by visiting safetyequipment.org/gloves.